

Program

26.3.2014

Monday 31.3. (travelling day / Erasmus IP –project, partner seminar)

Perspectives on the Development of Voluntary Work, Seminar Hall A-building, A117

13.00 - 14.20 Vapaaehtoistyön seminaari (Suomeksi) First part of the seminar in Finnish.

14.20 – 14.30 In English:

Chair and introduction to the Erasmus IP –project: Volunteer Engagement in Europe (2012-2014) Research Director Jussi Ronkainen, Juvenia – Youth Research and Development Centre, Mikkeli University of Applied Sciences

14.30 – 15.00

Perspectives and good practices on the development of voluntary work in Poland
Dr. Mariusz Granosik, Department of Social Pedagogy, University Lodz

15.00 – 15.30

Perspectives and good practices on the development of voluntary work in Spain
Prof. Ana Gil Lacruz & Prof. Marta Gil Lacruz, University of Zaragoza

15.30 – 17.00

Panel discussion: Developing voluntary work – experiences from different European countries

Chairs: Laura Hokkanen & Katri Schadewitz

Discussants: Student Jassin Rezai (Mikkeli University of Applied Sciences), Prof. Ana Gil Lacruz (University of Zaragoza), Prof. Catherine Robinson (University of Bangor), Student Johanna Pirinen (Mikkeli University of Applied Sciences), Development manager Maikki Kiviluoto (Social and Health Services of Mikkeli)

Tuesday 1.4. International Week starts

9.00 -9.45 Welcome to Mikkeli, morning coffee together D131

10.00 – 15.00 D338

“Getting in contact... with and via art and creativity...” Creativity techniques, contact-drawing, artistic and creative activities for groups, action painting, painting and drawing with music.

Marianne Forstner, University of Upper Austria

10.00-12.00 A117

European senior citizens: volunteering and wellbeing.

Marta Gil Lacruz & Ana Gil Lacruz, University of Zaragoza, Spain

Lunch 12-13

13.00-15.00 D338

...Marianne Forstner’s workshop continues.

13.00-15.00 D322a

Interpretative diagnosis

Anna Jarkiewicz, University of Lodz, Poland

15.00-16.00 X221

Erasmus IP – dissemination meeting

16.00-18.00 X221

Work-shop: Project planning.

Topic: “Good Youth and Social Work Practices in Europe”, Erasmus+

Jussi Ronkainen & Kati Vapalahti, Mikkeli University of Applied Sciences

19.00- Dinner at Talli –restaurant. Campus area.

Wednesday 2.4.

Nature Experience Day, exploring Finnish nature and traditions in springtime

10.00 Meet at the Campus, front of D-building, main parking lot.

Please be equipped with outdoor clothes and shoes. Short (2-3km) walk in the forest. Traditional Finnish outdoor meals. Possibility for Finnish sauna and ice-swimming.

about 20.00 Return to Campus

Thursday 3.4.

10.00 – 14.00 DeXi

Possibility to learn more about language teaching at Mamk

10.00 – 15.00 D338

“Getting in contact... with and via art and creativity...” Creativity techniques, contact-drawing, artistic and creative activities for groups, action painting, painting and drawing with music.

Marianne Forstner, University of Upper Austria

10.00-12.00 D117

Self Help Groups in Germany – Opportunities and Restrictions of Mutual Self Help

Michael Helmbrecht & Ulrike Krämer Technische Hochschule Georg-Simon-Ohm Nürnberg, Germany

10.00-12.00 X221

Centrifugation as a strategy of city renewal in Ghent.

Bart Van Bouchaute, Artevelde Hoegeshool, Gent, Belgium

12-13 Lunch

13.00 – 15.00 DeXi and D131

Project presentations

13.00-15.00 D338

...Marianne Forstner’s workshop continues.

13.00-15.00 E202

Interpretative diagnosis

Anna Jarkiewicz, University of Lodz, Poland

13.00-15.00 X220

Professional Boundaries

Catherine Robinson & Rob Poole, Bangor University, Wales

15.30-18.00 X221

Work-shop: Project planning. Topic: Horizon 2020, Youth Research Project

Jussi Ronkainen, Mikkeli University of Applied Sciences

Friday 4.4.

10.00 – 12.00

Mental Illness and Poverty

Catherine Robinson & Rob Poole, Bangor University, Wales

Possibility for visits to practical training places and working life.

Travelling day